SEATTLE, Wash. – Sinner Saint Burlesque is bringing back their adaptation of William Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream. This production addresses heteronormative and racist values in the original script that are out of touch with contemporary audiences by showcasing body-positivity, sexual freedom, and gender justice in a queer, kinky burlesque update of the classic. The script has been adapted by Evilyn Sin Claire and Sailor St. Claire.

Opening night will feature a post-show discussion with cast and production team hosted by Sar Surmick of the Consent Academy. Audience members are invited to stay and explore issues of consent within the play, and how such issues may play out in real life.

VIP ticket holders will enjoy a pre-show screening of Sinner Saint Burlesque's R-rated cut of the 2001 erotic classic A Midsummer Night's Cream starring Nina Hartley, featuring none of the explicit scenes, and all of the porn stars spouting Shakespeare. (The screening for VIPs at the 10pm show on June 29 will be held after the performance.)
